New for St. James'

- ✓ The "Fifth Sunday Breakfast" will now be: the "Last Sunday Breakfast." Every last Sunday of the month at 9:00 there will be a breakfast with conversation about our spiritual life.
- Many people pay their pledge electronically and therefore on Sundays do not place anything in the collection plate. This makes some folks uncomfortable when the plate comes along. So, in the atrium by the bulletins and in the "back" of the church by the "front" door by the bulletins, will be laminated cards, the size of an envelope. You can pick one up and put it in the collection plate when it comes by. These will be recycled each week by "the counters" for the next week.

We're still growing... On November 18, we helped 72 guests (139 including their households), with 86 bags. 86 bags cost us $570. Please continue to support us!

And, check out the Carol's Closet article in the new edition of CRUX!

Baking Help Needed for Carol's Closet

We would like to put together bags of cookies for our Carol's Closet guests for Christmas. If you are able to help, we will need 45 dozen cookies, altogether. Please leave them at church for our December 13 "bagging" evening so we may organize the cookies for December 16.

Faith in Action

Thanks to everyone who made our fall events so successful – those who planned them, those who volunteered time or in-kind items to support them, and who supported them financially by purchasing or donating.

This has been a very busy fall!

- The September 17 Mum Sale brought in $168 to support Lunch in the Park expenses. Marie Dixon organized volunteers to meet on October 7 to prepare 75 bag lunches and to distribute them to those in need following the Church by the Pond service in Bushnell Park in Hartford.
- Bea Farlekas organized another successful Pet Adoption event on October 14, and many, many people helped with set up, clean up, and provision of food for volunteers/staff of the participating agencies.
- The Rice & Beans / Chili Cook-off on October 15 raised $600, which was donated to support St. Vincent's Centre for Handicapped Children in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. This was a joint project with Trinity Church in Wethersfield.
- Jeannette Brown and her crew of volunteers and food-donators support the Red Cross in another successful blood drive on October 27.
- Operation Christmas Child (aka "shoebox") project, organized by Blakeley Crevoiserat, collected 15 shoeboxes for distribution. Parishioners were asked to fill a shoebox with small gifts for a child and return it to the church. These boxes were delivered to a distribution center where they are wrapped, labeled (with appropriate age and gender of the child), and then sent all over the world to spread the love of Christ.
- And of course, Carol's Closet monthly collections and distributions continue, organized by Marie Dixon.

Faith in Action upcoming events:

- Christmas High Tea on December 9 to support Guimond Pierre Louis's study at Hartford Seminary.
- Winter clothing collection (ongoing) contact Judy Knowlton if you have questions.
- Possible Soup Sundays to be scheduled in January and February.
- Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper February 13. Proceeds support Heads Up! Hartford.
- We encourage you to support the Town of Glastonbury (Social Services) program to collect donations of food/gifts/money for those in need this Christmas season.

Blood Drive on December 27th

Schedule some time on Wednesday Dec. 27th from 1:00 - 6:00pm to donate blood. Helping to save a life can be the best Christmas gift ever! Can't stand the sight of blood? © You can still support those who give by:

- helping with set up or clean up or
- providing sandwiches or homemade goodies that we serve in the canteen or
- greeting the donors at the registration desk/welcome center or
- ffering hospitality at the canteen in the parish hall

This type of volunteering supports both the Red Cross staff and the donors; it makes the whole process run smoother. Look for the sign-up sheets in the foyer or contact Jeannette Brown jeannette.brown167@yahoo.com or (860) 519-7114 for more information.
